Reappointed Councilman, Again Mayor

Action is Speedy
After Citizens
Launch Campaign

Charles Farrell is again mayor of Palm Springs.

Yielding to an unprecedented demand by the voters, businessmen and an appeal by Council, he rescinded his resignation and was reappointed as councilman from the fourth district, and then reelected as mayor.

He was officially sworn in by City Clerk Louise McCann at a special meeting of council Tuesday afternoon.

HIS REAPPOINTMENT followed six days after his surprise resignation by telegram to each of the other six councilmen, and a letter which was presented to council later Wednesday. No action was taken by council on his resignation, as it automatically became effective as soon as read at an official meeting.

Never before in the history of the city have Villagers united so solidly as in the campaign to have Charles Farrell return as mayor. Within hours after his resignation a campaign was started to have him reconsider and to have council reappoint him—and this campaign gained momentum daily.

IN A JOINT STATEMENT Monday, members of the council said "We're very sorry that he submitted his resignation, and are going to see if it is at all possible that he will reconsider. We all hope that he accepts reappointment to council and reelection as mayor."

"This was a great shock to all of us. We consider it the greatest loss Palm Springs has ever had. Charlie has done a magnificent job of guiding the council and city during the years of greatest development, and he's

AT LONG LAST
Here I sit at half past two Wishing that the count were through
But at that I'm far from sore,
First I've won since twenty-four.

As Adlai himself said in Los Angeles, all things come to an end . . . Well, my losing streak has . . . Being a hide-bound GOP, I've always voted that ticket—with one exception . . . In 1928 I went for Al Smith . . . So you can see that the last time I was on the winning side was with Silent Cal in 1924 . . . Lost on FDR four times and then on Harry . . . But like broke the streak. (This being written early Wednesday a. m. and remembering 1916, I've got my fingers crossed.)

THAT WAS QUITE an election . . . There were cries of fraud as people gathered at 7 a. m. at Precinct Two polling place and it wasn't open . . . Just because nobody could find the keys . . . And as every one had the right to take two hours off to vote, no one really lost . . . But the telephoning was frantic between 7 a. m. and 7:30 when the polls opened . . . The record registration and vote strained the facilities of officials but, on the whole, all went quietly, if lengthily . . . But, at any rate, those people in Precinct Two indicated that people really wanted to vote . . . And a record number did.

THE ELECTION also brought out a lot of old gags . . . The date did it . . . This year it fell on the fourth . . . So that Rex Hardy could astound the Kiwanis club Tuesday noon by declaring that if Ike won every ballot in the country would be closed eight months from the day . . . Congressman John Phillips, speaker at the club session, was the first to count on his fingers and say: "Sure, eight months from today is the Fourth of July." . . . And Herb Rogers thought he had something when he rushed in on me the other day and said: "If Ike wins Tuesday

SWORN IN AGAIN—It was a happy scene in city hall Tuesday afternoon when Charles Farrell was sworn in as mayor again by City Clerk Louise McCann. Mayor Farrell reconsidered his resignation tendered last Wednesday, following a wave of protests from Villagers, and Council in a special session reappointed him as councilman from the fourth district and reelected him as mayor. Watching Farrell take the oath of office are (l. to r.) Councilmen Florian Boyd, Ruth Hardy, Frank Miller, Earle Strebe, Jerry Nathanson and Ted McKinney, city attorney Roy Colegate.

Seeburg Building Sold to Trio of Village Dentists

Sale of the Canyon View building to Doctors Norman Clein, Bernard Poliak, and Frank Purcell, this week was announced by the Gannon Realty company.

Formerly known as the Seeburg building, after its owner, J. P. Seeburg of Chicago and music machine fame, the Canyon View building is one of the finest and most attractive buildings in Palm Springs. Dr. Clein, one of the nation's leading pediatricians, became interested in the property while visiting here from Seattle. Joining with two of Palm Springs' leading dentists and long time residents, negotiations for the purchase of the building were opened through James Morton, of the Gannon Realty company, who represented both buyer and seller.

Dr. Purcell and Dr. Poliak, both active in community affairs for many years, remarked that this was just another way in which they could show their faith in the future of the Desert area. "I join with my associates in their feeling," said Dr. Clein, "and look forward to making this attractive community my home."

Balloon Breaks Windshield, Two in Auto Injured

Two youths, 16 and 17 years of age, will appear before a juvenile officer in Police Court at 10 a. m. Tuesday, November 18, on a charge of throwing water-filled balloons from their car, one of which broke a windshield and injured the occupants.

In addition, the boys appeared with their parents at the police station Wednesday at the request of Juvenile Officer Ted Greene.

INJURED were John and Eleanor Linke, 481 North Palm Canyon drive, who suffered cuts and lacerations on their chests when the windshield on their car was broken by the liquid-filled balloon while they were driving along Highway 111, near Araby Point, on Sunday afternoon.

They reported that three cars passed in the opposite direction, and the balloon was thrown from one of the moving vehicles. Medical treatment was required for the injuries, and the incident was reported by the attending physician.

ON MONDAY EVENING, a water-filled balloon was thrown from a moving vehicle and struck the car driven by Dr. William Aikin, near 316 South Palm Canyon drive. Dr. Aikin followed the car driven by the youths and when they stopped, asked them to report to the police.

Upon questioning, they admitted the other accident. They maintained, however, that they were throwing the balloon at a friend on the sidewalk when it struck Dr. Aikin's car, police reported.

They Get Into Trouble Quick

Two small boys, about five years of age, didn't let their youth bother them when it came to getting into trouble Tuesday afternoon.

The mother of one reported them lost and police started searching. They were found by the pool in the back yard of the Arthur Booz residence, 1120 Alejo road, where they were enjoying themselves by throwing trash, cans, flower pots and wood into the pool.

Police took the youngsters home, and notified the parents. The father of one lad agreed to have the pool cleaned and to replace things damaged.

Redistricting Case in Desert Court Nov. 10

Attorney Bock
Prepares Series
of New Motions

Redistricting suit filed by five Villagers against city council has been transferred to the Department of Desert Sessions at Indio, with Judge Thomas O'Donnell of San Benito county scheduled to hold hearings on all motions pending next Monday, November 10.

This action was taken by Judge O. K. Morton Friday at a hearing in the superior court at Riverside, when he acted on a motion by Attorney Leonard Bock, counsel for the plaintiffs.

JUDGE MORTON withdrew his memorandum opinion rendered July 2, 1951, in which he said that "the proposed ordinance is proper legislation for initiative proceedings by the qualified electors of the city of Palm Springs and that it qualifies for the required action by the City Council of Palm Springs under Sec. 1712 of Art. 1 of the Election Code of the State of California and Art. 4, Sec. 1 of the Constitution of the State of California."

His order of August 29 holding that the defendants' "demurrer to plaintiffs' complaint be overruled and that the motion to strike said complaint or any part thereof be dismissed" is not affected by this withdrawal of his opinion, according to Attorney Bock.

BOCK PRESENTED seven motions to be considered by Judge Morton Friday, and the final one was granted—the transfer to Desert Sessions.

Other motions which he will present Monday are: Issuance of peremptory writ of mandate, ruling on motion to strike answer and judgment on pleadings, if these are granted, the following will not need to be heard, the plaintiffs' attorney said; establishment of questions of fact to be tried, request for a jury trial, and preference on trial calendar.

IF FAVORABLE ACTION is taken on the first three, there will be no need to submit the remainder of the motions, Bock said. The first motion, if granted, would direct the defendants to take the necessary steps for the calling of a general election here and the placing upon the ballot the initiative petition asking for reorganization of councilmanic district boundary lines.

If all three are denied, counsel for the plaintiffs stated that he will ask for establishment of facts to be tried, and then request a trial by jury as soon as possible.

ONCE THE TRIAL is concluded, or a decision handed down by the judge without a trial, the city will then have 60 days for an appeal if the decision is in favor of the plaintiffs.

Bock is representing Francis C. Blotter, F. H. Swendehjelm, Jr., Don R. Seiler, Sal Allessandro and Joseph P. Palozzi, who filed with city council a petition containing 562 qualified names asking an election and when council refused to act, filed the petition for a writ of mandate in

THE WINNERS—Gen Dwight Eisenhower, top, and Sen. Richard Nixon, elected president and vice president of the United States in a landslide vote Tuesday. Palm Springs and the Palm Springs judicial district gave them better than a two to one vote.

Four-Fifths of City Vote Cast Tuesday

Records Broken
as Villagers Flock
to Polls All Day

Seventy-nine per cent of Palm Springs' registered voters turned out Tuesday to go along with the state and the nation and give General Dwight Eisenhower and Sen. Richard Nixon a rousing lead over their Democratic opponents. Gov. Adlai Stevenson and Sen. John Sparkman.

During the day 3494 Villagers went to 14 polling places and gave the Republican ticket 2349 votes to 1096 for the Democratic standard bearers.

WITH ONE EXCEPTION, it was a clean sweep. Every precinct except No. 9 gave a majority to the Ike-Nixon ticket. In No. 9, Democrats led 214 to 114. Precinct 9 is in District Two, on the reservation. But the other two precincts in District Two, Nos. 2 and 11, gave a majority to Eisenhower and Nixon, 347 to 249.

Largest lead for Eisenhower and Nixon was in Precinct 5 which voted 201 to 40. Largest Republican vote was in Precinct 12 with 238. In that precinct, Stevenson received 102.

THE VILLAGE also gave Leo Backstrand a large lead over Marvin Bledsoe in the assembly race. The G.O.P. candidate polled 2054 votes here to the Democratic Bledsoe's 965.

Palm Springs followed the general trend of the state on the propositions. On No. 3, exempting religious schools from taxation of much interest locally, the vote was 1862 yes to 1220 no.

They favored the $774,000 Juvenile Hall bond issue, 2099 to 431.

REMAINDER of the Palm Springs judicial district, from Desert Hot Springs to Palm Desert, also favored the Ike-Nixon ticket and Backstrand. Every precinct in the district outside of the city limits went Republican, favored the Juvenile Hall issue and favored No. 3.

Heaviest vote cast in the district was in the Palm Desert precinct where 492 went to the polls. Heaviest city precinct was No. 11 where 334 voted.

IT WAS ALMOST midnight before the first complete precinct reported and the last few straggled in between 4 and 6 a. m. Wednesday with one Cathedral City precinct, No. 2, reporting at 7, Palm Desert at 9 and Cathedral City No. 1 Wednesday afternoon.

Only one bit of confusion remained.

The PUBLISHER'S Corner

THERE WAS MUCH REJOICING in Palm Springs Tuesday night when Villagers learned that Dwight Eisenhower and Dick Nixon would be the next president and vice-president -- and that Charles Farrell was going to stay on as Mayor of Palm Springs. The voters here returned a 2 to 1 majority for the Republican ticket so there was much celebrating. It was good news that also came on election day when the City Council announced that it had re-elected Farrell as Mayor -- and that he had accepted. There had been much concern throughout the Village over his resignation a week ago yesterday.

Most of the rejoicing, we believe, must have been on the part of Democrats who switched to Eisenhower. Republicans simply couldn't believe it -- they were stunned by the knowledge that it was actually coming true -- they were celebrating a Republican victory in the presidential race for the first time in twenty-four years. Many there were who couldn't remember back that far.

Then too, the knowledge of the great task that lies ahead for a new administration in Washington kept many people in somber contemplation along with a sigh of relief that the election is over. So much is to be done and there are so many hopes that this marks the dawn of a new day for America.

And, getting back to Palm Springs, election day had yet another meaning: TV arrived in town. More cause for celebration -- a new milestone has been reached in the history of Palm Springs. But that wasn't unanimous either. Some there were who felt that their own little Village is becoming too much of a city!

Slaying Trial of Lawrence is Under Way

Death of Girl
Found Near City
Echoed in Court

Trial of John Henry Lawrence, accused of the slaying of his niece, Kathryn Knodel, 16, last August got under way in Riverside county superior court Wednesday and Judge John G. Gabbert, who is presiding, believes it will take three weeks.

Attorney William Shaw is representing Lawrence.

District Attorney William O. Mackey, assisted by Elwood Rich, is handling the state's case.

SHAW HAS NOT indicated what line his defense will take.

Lawrence, himself, insists the death was an accident. He admitted picking the girl up and taking her for a ride. He claims that when a tire went flat, a jack slipped striking the girl, killing her.

The slaying took place six miles this side of the Riverside-San Bernardino county line on a lonely Cherry Valley road.

LAWRENCE IS ACCUSED of placing the body in his car and driving to a lonely spot in East Ramon road, eight miles from Palm Springs, where he abandoned it.

While driving there, he became stalled on the Southern Pacific tracks at Garnet on Indian avenue and railroad men who assisted him were able to furnish the clues which led to his arrest in San Francisco later.

More than 150 persons attended the 30th anniversary dinner of the College of Medical Evangelists' School of Nutrition last Sunday at Loma Linda.

Representing Palm Springs was Mrs. Rachael Thomas, chief dietitian of the Desert Hospital.

Appearing as guest speaker at the open house celebration which was attended by food administrators, nutritionists and educators from Southland institutions.

Juvenile Held on Charges of Theft of Small Radio

A 17-year-old juvenile was transferred to Juvenile Hall in Riverside Wednesday, charged with burglary of a radio from the residence of T. J. Allen, 426 North Indian avenue.

Allen reported that upon returning from downtown Sunday he had noticed the front door had been forced open, but couldn't find anything missing. Later, while taking out garbage he found the radio hidden in the garbage can.

He and his wife later observed the youth, who was a roomer at their house, arrive home from a movie and take the radio out of the garbage can and to his room. The radio was wrapped in paper.

The 17-year-old, who had been in Palm Springs four weeks and was attending high school here while supporting himself by working at several jobs, told police that he had entered the kitchen to find "something to eat." He said that he found the package wrapped ready for mailing and had hid it in the garbage can.

The radio was valued at $41.

Villager Authors History of Imperial, Coachella Valleys

The miracle that made a garden from a desert is the subject of the newest Stanford illustrated guide, "Imperial and Coachella Valleys," by Collis H. Steere, of 725 South Sunrise way, Palm Springs, published today by Stanford University Press. Fourth in the Stanford Outdoor Books series, it is the first guidebook to cover these tremendously productive valleys that provide a winter vacationland for southern California.

The harnessing of the Colorado river to irrigate the barren wasteland of the Colorado desert is the main theme of the book. Steere tells of Dr. Oliver Wozencraft's dream of irrigating the desert, and how it came true fifty years later. Most dramatic is the account of the great floods of the Colorado river that threatened to wipe out the newborn community of settlers, and the spectacular and successful flight of Southern Pacific crews to stem the flood waters. The story ends with the completion of the All-American canal, which channels water from the Colorado to irrigate the Imperial and Coachella valleys and makes possible the most comprehensive experiment in controlled farming in the United States.

THE UNUSUAL and the amazing seem to flourish in this "green desert," according to the author. Here is a sea that is saltier than the Atlantic or Pacific Ocean. If you look, you can find dinosaur tracks, strange Indian carvings, and "the Devil's Cactus Garden." So terrifying are the miniature volcanoes of this area with their sulphurous gases that a chicken might be killed. "If I had this display in my back yard, I could convert every sinner in the state."

The purpose of the book, as Mr. Steere states in his introduction, is to provide "a general picture of what the motorist might see in a 12-hour trip, what the vacationist might enjoy in a week or two, or what modern pioneers would find should they choose to settle here." The comprehensive guidebook section is divided for convenience into five parts. The first describes two routes for those who are traveling directly to the Pacific Coast from eastern cities—one pointing out the sights to see in the Imperial Valley, the other telling of the Coachella Valley and the northern edge of the Salton Sea.

THE NEXT THREE PARTS of the book are written for those who have time to explore the three distinct areas most visited in the Colorado Desert—the Imperial Valley, the Coachella Valley, and the Salton Sea. Palm Springs and other holiday towns are discussed. The final section mentions briefly three side trips which may be made to resort areas and places of historical importance in the vicinity of the Colorado Desert—the all-year vacationland of the San Jacinto Mountains, the Joshua Tree National Monument, and Anza Desert State Park.

OVER 60 PHOTOGRAPHS of the valleys and the Salton Sea have been included, showing the great variety of crops grown, the scenic beauty of the area, the festivals and events, and other interesting features. The cover is illuminated by a bright, four-color pictorial map. Inside, a hydrographic panorama map explains how water has been brought to the valley. Another map clearly shows roads, towns, and all points of interest. All maps have been executed by James Cutter.

500 Attend Barbecue, Rally Closing Ike Campaign Here

Enthusiastic Meeting at Polo Grounds Hears
Address by Charles Johnson Backing General

More than 500 persons attended the free barbecue and heard Charles B. Johnson, Pasadena attorney and real estate broker, speak on "Eisenhower and the Future," at the program held Saturday evening at the Rodeo Field.

The crowd was larger than anticipated and the last 50 persons arriving missed out on the menu of barbecued spareribs, but an auxiliary supply of hot dogs had been arranged in case of this event and there was enough food for everyone, according to Chairman Al E. Hoover of the local Eisenhower-Nixon club, sponsor of the event.

THE LOCAL GROUP received a personal telegram from General Dwight D. Eisenhower, congratulating them on the program, which was read to the group. The message follows: "Comment is reaching me from all sides on the fine work you all have done for the Saturday night rally. Congratulations. With the whole-hearted support of groups like yours all across the country, we will surely win our crusade."

Besides the talk by Attorney Johnson, a recording was played of a recent address by John Roosevelt, son of the late president; and Lincoln's Gettysburg Address was given by Donna Ellison.

INVOCATION was delivered by the Rev. William Goodrow, and Warren Linville, commander of the American Legion post, led the pledge of allegiance to the flag. Frank Bogert was master of ceremonies.

Sponsors of the barbecue were Lawrence Crossley, Rudy Salazar and Jim Reddick. Officers of the Eisenhower-Nixon club are Hoover, chairman; John Connors, vice chairman; Oliver Jaynes, secretary; O. A. Torgerson, treasurer, and Mrs. Dinty Moore, corresponding secretary.

day, there'll be soldiers marching down the streets of the big cities a week later." He got no place on that one because a quick glance at the calendar revealed the red figures "11" . . . Armistice Day . . . Herb forgot the bank gag . . . They'll be closed, too.

ONE LAST quip on the election and then we'll let it lay . . . In Precinct Six occurred the only write-ins of the day . . . Three persons wrote in their choice for assembly . . . Getting one vote each were Helen Gahagen Douglas, Jerry Harter and Julian Beck . . . Well, television came to town this week but outside of the areas farther east, I'm not looking for a forest of TV antenna (hope that's spelled right) here . . . A master antenna will take care of the portion blocked off from Mt. Wilson by our mountains . . . So I won't have to see as well as hear the commercials.

ED HAWKINS, speaking before city council last week, said the idea of using sawdust instead of fertilizer on lawns to discourage flies was o.k. except that some times the larger pieces of sawdust don't melt away . . . "But that's easily solved," he said, "You find them the first time you mow the lawn." . . . The city is threatening to do something about the host of flies the annual lawn-planting produces . . . I was doing my share at the office here until some lowlife swiped my flyswatter and I haven't been able to swindle-sheet a new one . . . Also at council was Mrs. Lieb Rosen who asked what could be done about heavy trucks and busses on Palm Canyon drive . . . "Every time one goes by it feels like an earthquake—and they come pretty often."

FOR SOME TIME I have made frequent references to that park at the north end of town . . . "North End Park" isn't exactly an euphonious name . . . I understand that the suggestion that it be named Charles Farrell park has been named . . . I'm for that . . . Or, call it Seventh Heaven and have the theme song, "Margie." . . . Hizzoner was out of office just long enough to escape writing a proclamation . . . This is "National Cat Week" . . . Some women took that seriously . . . I heard some pretty snide remarks from a group of the so-called gentler sex when a pretty girl went down the Drive in short shorts.

HAD SOME NOTES here about driving habits . . . Saw some pretty bad ones this week . . . But I feel too good . . . Now if the rest of those precinct workers would come in, I might get to bed before time to get up . . . Happy Ike to you, too.

Museum to Stage Special Program

Next Sunday night, November 9, the Desert Museum will present Dr. Olaus J. Murie, president of The Wilderness Society of Washington, D. C., in a program on the big game of Alaska. Dr. Murie will present a color film, "Big Game of McKinley National Park, Alaska," taken by his brother, Adolph Murie, with excellent shots of the wild game of the Alaskan wilderness. During his brief stay, Dr. Murie will be the guest of Harry James at his mountain home above Banning. The program will be presented at the Museum at 8 o'clock.

Blankenship in Court Tuesday in Theft Study

Extradition hearing for Ray Blankenship, suspected of committing five daylight thefts here on October 22, will be held today, Thursday, in Austin, Texas.

Capt. Orest Johnson and Sgt. Durman Ordway are there at the present time, seeking to return Blankenship here to stand trial. They reported that he is fighting extradition.

A web of circumstantial evidence has been woven around Blankenship which definitely establishes his presence in this city on that date, police report.

He was arrested in Denton, Texas, after an alarm was sent out from here.

Articles and cash taken from the five homes were valued at $3360.

Three Births Recorded Here

Three births were reported this week by the Desert Hospital, all on November 1. They are:

A son, David Scott Bergson, six pounds seven ounces, to Mr. and Mrs. Milo Bergson, 333 South Patencio road.

A son, Russell Lee Hines, nine pounds four and one-half ounces, to Mr. and Mrs. Aldon Hines, 841 East Arenas road.

A son weighing five pounds 12 ounces to Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth J. Cosgrove, 466 Avenida Palmera.

Henwood Attends Annual Meeting of Hospital Group

Robert E. Henwood, administrator of the Desert Hospital, is attending the annual California Hospital association meeting at the Hotel Mar Monte, Santa Barbara, from November 5 to 8. Yesterday the Association of California Hospital District directors discussed reports from the membership committee, the insurance committee and legislative committee for the hospital districts.

In addition there was a discussion of credit unions for district hospitals. A report of a survey upon district hospitals was made and a round table discussion brought out the pros and cons of collective bargaining in district hospitals.

THE PRINCIPAL SPEAKER for the meeting is Gordon Cummings, chief, bureau of hospitals, state department of public health.

Today and tomorrow the district hospital directors will meet with the California Hospital association and discuss such important subjects as vocational and public liability insurance for hospitals; safeguards against explosions in surgery; introduction to the Community Hospital program; hospital organization; basic rates and charges; and effective admitting procedures.

Tomorrow, Mrs. Walter R. Hoffmann will discuss the Philadelphia meeting of the American Hospital association Women's Auxiliary. In addition there will be two other timely subjects: The Uniform Hospital Report and Assignment Form, and the Challenge to Blue Cross.

Attendance at the annual meeting numbers in the hundreds and brings together the prominent hospital administrators throughout the state and several guest administrators from out of this state who will present timely subjects.

More Families Decide to Make Home in Village

Four more families have decided that the desert is where they want to live.

Smith E. Minson and family, for many years having lived in Burbank, decided to move to Palm Springs and bought a home on Calle San Raphael. Minson is the service manager for Padlock Pool company.

Jerry Bunker, assistant city attorney, and family purchased a home in Deco Well Ranch. Another couple to enjoy the desert is Charles and Ruth Thompson from Seattle. They purchased a home on Avenida Hokona and are getting settled.

Richard and Ruth Zuckerman and Bernard Malin, from Los Angeles, have purchased a Winter residence and plan to spend much time in Palm Springs.

The deals were consummated by William E. Colven, realtor, associate broker with Peter B. Sheptenko.

DATES BY AIR—Mr. and Mrs. Percy Whiteside load the first shipment by air of 500 pounds of local dates to the San Joaquin valley into their Navion at Palm Springs airport. The fruit was grown at their ranch near Thunderbird and basket gift-packed at the Kersten plant in containers designed for shipment overseas to members of the armed forces for Christmas.

Check Heaters Now, Advice of County Health Official

With the Winter season approaching, now is the time to have gas heaters in homes checked to be sure they are in good working order and safe to be used on the first chilly mornings, advises Dr. E. M. Stone, Riverside county health officer.

"All home gas heaters which have stood unused through the Summer months need to be thoroughly checked by a competent person to make sure that vents are free from obstructions, that valves are clean and in good adjustment, that connections are tight and that there are no defective parts through which gas fumes may escape. Such checking saves possible waste of fuel. It may save lives.

"Fires, explosions, asphyxiations occur each Winter from defective or improperly operating gas heaters in homes," says Dr. Stone. "Serious injuries and deaths of family members frequently result."

Gas fuel distributors check heaters of their users as a courtesy service. They say that the first cold snap always brings on a rush of such requests and suggest that users avoid possible delay by making arrangements for this service early.

To Face Judge as Youths Accused Result Argument of Robbing Man

Guillermo "Billy" Fontes, 23, 216 South El Segundo, entered a plea of not guilty to a charge of assault at arraignment before Judge Eugene Theriaue Monday morning, and a trial date was set for November 13.

In a complaint signed by Frank Portnow, owner of the "La Quinta" Club, Fontes was charged with "taking a swing" at Portnow when he refused to sell him liquor and attempted to escort him from the place.

He was released on $25 bail.

Charged with grand theft and armed robbery, two youths are in county jail this week awaiting questioning. They are accused of robbing D. A. Rowberry of Pasadena and then forcing him from his car at the Palm Springs junction, stealing the automobile. Rowberry had picked the youths up to give them a ride.

Rowberry hitch-hiked to Whitewater and called the sheriff's substation at Banning. Southland police were notified and the two youths, Robert G. Smith, 22, Pomona, and Robert Burton, 19, were captured at Colton.

about his health. He had been sick about a year and it constantly worried him.

La Quinta and the Desert Club are scheduled to open for the season Friday and we talked about the opening.

"HE BROKE in to shake his head wearily and say: 'You know, Mill, I don't seem to have it any more. Look at me. I can't do anything. I'm slipping. I just haven't got the pep.'"

"At that moment, my telephone rang and I turned to answer it. Then I heard the shot."

Detectives said Stone had apparently taken a 38-caliber revolver from his desk drawer and put a bullet through his head.

STONE, according to Hoffman, had been associated with the La Quinta resort since its inception in 1934. The desert subdivision which occupies about two square miles of resort homes surrounding the luxurious Desert Club, is between Palm Desert and Indio.

Hoffman said that in 1950 Stone purchased controlling interest in the club and the development from Edward Glick and became president of the organization.

Tax Exemption Asked by District

City council finance committee had under consideration a request from Palm Springs Unified School district for exemption from the city sales tax for purchases made here.

Dr. A. G. Hoff, district superintendent, told council last week that the board had established a policy of buying everything possible locally if the cost did not exceed 10 per cent of an out-of-town price. He estimated local expenditures of $30,000 which, if the tax was exempt, would save the district $800.

Price of Milk to go up Saturday

The price of milk will go up in Palm Springs Saturday.

The state bureau of milk control announced at Sacramento last week that the raise affects Riverside county and eight other southern counties.

Store prices will increase a half-cent a quart and home-delivered milk prices will jump a full-cent a quart, the bureau announced.

The increase goes to producers of milk to cover increased costs of replacing dairy cows, the bureau said.

ONLY EXCEPTION to the full-cent price boost in home-delivered milk will be to customers who buy more than 60 quarts a month. They will pay only a half-cent a quart more.

This price boost applies not only in the Riverside-San Bernardino area but also to Los Angeles and Orange counties.

Full-cent increases in both store and home-delivered milk were allowed in Ventura, Santa Barbara, San Luis Obispo and Kern counties. Producers will get a half-cent of the increase. Distributors and grocers each will get a quarter-cent more.

PRICES WILL JUMP a half-cent both in stores and delivered, the increase going to producers, in San Diego county.

Distributors will get the half-cent boost granted in Tulare county in both store and delivered milk. The increase is to help pay increased labor costs in the area.

The milk control bureau said the increases followed hearings held in the various areas between October 16 and October 24.

The earrings, each having a two-carat diamond and six smaller ones set in platinum, were wrapped in tissue paper and carried in her handbag, she said.

superior court.

REPRESENTING the city in court Friday were Jerry Bunker, assistant city attorney, and Harry M. Dougherty, of the Riverside and Palm Springs law firm of Thomson and Colegate.

In the original legal action, City Attorney Roy Colegate doubted the legality of the proposed election because present councilmanic districts here had been established by an act of the legislature, and that he did not believe a vote of the citizens of Palm Springs could undo the state's action.

HE ALSO ARGUED that the present district lines were the only fair ones which could be established for fair and equitable representation.

Attorney Bock maintained that the present council district lines were faulty because of population shifts since established and that some districts had less than 400 voters but had equal representation with districts which had more than 1000 voters.

Investigate Theft After Wallet Found

There was identification in the wallet, but no money. The owner had not reported the loss.

sulted when no one could find the keys to No. 2 precinct until almost 7:30.

In several precincts the crowd was so great that there were insufficient booths and tables were set up where votes could be cast in private.

CHAIRMAN AL E. HOOVER of the local Eisenhower-Nixon club yesterday morning thanked all who aided in the local drive.

"We made the crusade a success here because everybody chimed in and voted," he said. "I'm deeply grateful and very happy."

In the nation as a whole the extent of the Republican victory grew as the returns continued to pile in. It was a win of landslide proportions as he cracked the solid south and swung the big cities.

IN THE COUNTY, Lee Backstrand won the race for the assembly seat to succeed John Babiarz.

Statewide returns on the propositions were still vague as most precincts counted presidential votes first.

The Juvenile Hall bond issue carried the county by a comfortable margin, returns yesterday indicated.

Freeway Plans Outlined Before Banning Council

John Cowgill of the San Bernardino office of the state highway division, explained plans for a freeway through Banning at an overflow meeting of the city council there last week and said that it will probably take two years before the new route can be built.

One objection was voiced against the state's plans and that was the closing of Banning street which leads to the Banning airport.

Under the original plans, there were but three ramps to connect cross streets with the freeway. Banning residents want one more—the street to the airport.

Cowgill said that before any negotiations with property owners can be started, the state and the city must enter an agreement on the freeway right of way.

The engineer added that the highway through Banning must be a freeway because of the immense volume of traffic handled, more than 30,000 vehicles daily.

The freeway through Banning has long been sought by residents of Palm Springs and the desert area because of traffic jams during the season on the present narrow Ramsey street route.

In the so-called "good old days" apprehension of criminals was the prime concern of law enforcement. When this was accomplished arresting officers followed up to see that punitive measures were taken to assure punishment of the culprit.

This concept of "an eye for an eye" was a holdover from the middle ages and until the last couple of decades was followed without deviation in our courts and penal institutions.

Floggings, solitary confinement, leg irons and starvation rations were the practical results of this psychology and in some backward states, I am sorry to report, these sadistic practices are still permitted with the approval of the law.

CONSIDERABLE PROGRESS is being made however, and it is conceivable—with stress being placed on the importance of training in law enforcement—that prison outbreaks we have read about in Illinois and Ohio will one day be only dark pages on the history of prison reform.

Society itself is largely responsible for this deplorable condition because of its tendency to write "case closed" after a criminal has been convicted. What happens to that man or woman's life from then on is what we should be concerned about.

Part of the solution to this challenging problem was beautifully demonstrated in Palm Springs last week on the occasion of Halloween when the relatively new concept of "crime prevention" was demonstrated on a community-wide basis.

LED BY LIONS CLUB President Earl Hough, a group of 25 men each gave four hours of their time to provide healthy recreation and entertainment for some 600 youngsters who might otherwise have spent the evening getting into all kinds of devilment.

In 1944 records show that 16 youths spent the night in jail and emerged with a police record due to misdirection in spending healthy energy that was only natural and needed to be channeled.

Since that date 500 to 700 boys and girls have participated in Lion-sponsored Hal-

THE BOSSMAN—Vic Sudaha, owner and manager of the Palm House had to stand before the microphone and do his stint of entertainment before the huge crowd that jammed the outside and inside of his establishment for the Western Jamboree Sunday afternoon from "noon 'till sundown" and later. Dale Stoner in charge of the chuck wagon ran out of food long before sundown. Sudaha plans to continue the Sunday afternoon bill of fare and entertainment except he is going to serve a Western brunch to ham and eggs for those who desire in addition to the $1.50 deal of barbecued ribs, beans and the trimmings. Ace Striggins and his western band will entertain.

Oliver to Emcee Burro Event at Death Valley Celebration

Harry Oliver was a busy man this week.

Next Sunday he emcees a burro flapjack contest in which whiskered old prospectors will vie for many prizes at the Death Valley celebration which is slated for this weekend.

The burro event will be staged at 2 p. m. at Stovepipe Wells.

The burro flapjack contest is based on dexterity and teamwork of the old single blanket prospector-burro combination.

There are points for the best beard and proper costume, packing the burro with all of the equipment old-time prospectors used, a 100-yard trek to the campsite, campfire, flapjack making and so on.

Oliver is backing Mack Donald, former Villager who now answers questions at Knott's Berry farm.

McDonald, Oliver claims, can toss a flapjack so high "he has time to take a drink of coffee, wipe his beard and snuff before the flapjack hits the pan again."

Even the burro's conduct is going to figure in the prize winning total, Oliver added.

State Park

County Asks Aid
at Lake Elsinore

County supervisors ordered the preparation of a resolution by which it will ask the state commission of beaches and parks to make Lake Elsinore into a state park.

The supervisors ordered the preparation of the resolution after a delegation from Elsinore explained a project to reduce the area of the lake to 3200 acres so that available water will go farther.

The existing lake is about twice that size, and a series of dry years turns it into a mud flat. It was dry for several months before the heavy rains of the winter of 1951-1952.

A. L. Sonderegger, consulting engineer for the Lake Elsinore recreation park and parkway district, outlined the plan for the park.

low-even parties—at relatively little expense—with the result that the merchants have been saved untold thousands of dollars in clean-up and property damage.

THE PROGRAM has been so effective, in fact, that the youngsters have even been weaned away from the practice of soaping windows in the business district. And it was alone the youngsters who had fun that night. Without exception, the supervising "oldsters" expressed genuine satisfaction with the experience and "hit the sack" with a feeling of having made a considerable contribution to the prevention of juvenile delinquency in the community.

So, a salute to the Palm Springs Lions Club which certainly deserves the gratitude of the community for another contribution in the public interest.

Rice Sworn in as County Sheriff at Court Ceremony

Joe Rice officially became sheriff of Riverside county Monday noon when he was sworn into office.

He succeeds Carl Rayburn who was sheriff for 21 years and whose resignation became effective Monday.

Sheriff Rice is a former Federal Bureau of Investigation man and was stationed in the Riverside area for many years. Rice assumed office at brief ceremonies in Judge Russell Waite's courtroom with all three of the county judges, Judge Waite, Judge O. K. Morton and Judge John G. Gabbert officiating.

Monday night employees of the sheriff's department and officials held a party in honor of the retiring sheriff at the Box Springs training center.

Plan Dedication Service Sunday for New Organ

Final step in the building program of the Community church has taken this past Summer when the chancel was remodeled. The choir loft was considerably enlarged as was the platform which provides room for both the piano and organ and a choir of nearly fifty voices.

Through the generous gifts of three members of the church, Mr. and Mrs. Fay Brainard, Dr. and Mrs. Stanley Dougan and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lykken, this improvement was made possible. The architect was Roger Williams who with his father and brother made a generous contribution toward the project. The gifts of two other members, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stewart and Mrs. Edwin G. Booz, toward a new and larger Baldwin organ were accepted by the church and the organ installed at the end of August.

The service of dedication will be held Sunday evening at 7:30 p. m. Frederick M. Barnes, widely known organist and head of the organ department of the Baldwin Piano company, will present a recital of sacred music. The chancel choir and the high school choir will combine their voices in the anthem of praise "The Omnipotence" under the leadership of Robert Bruce with Lois Lux accompanying and the soprano solo sung by Miss Rose Zena Latta.

Following the service, a reception will be held. Mrs. Claude Perkins is in charge of the reception and will be assisted by several women of the church.

MAN GIVEN DOMINION CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LESSON DECLARES

How mankind may turn from the state of fallen man to the practical use of God-given dominion is told in the Sunday Lesson-Sermon on "Adam and Fallen Man" in all Christian Science churches.

The Golden Text is from Romans (5:17): "If by one man's offense death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ."

Bible selections from Genesis 1:27, 31; 2:1 declare, "So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; . . . And God saw every thing that he had made, and behold, it was very good. . . . Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them."

Harry Tomlinson Appointed Choral Director at Temple

(Desert Sun Photo)
CHORAL DIRECTOR—Harry S. Tomlinson who this week was appointed Choral Director for Temple Isaiah in the Jewish Community Center.

By a unanimous vote of the membership of the Jewish Community Center two weeks ago, Harry Tomlinson, well-known musicologist and director of choir and choral groups in Palm Springs, was selected to be the choral director at Temple Isaiah, with Christine Tomlinson as the organist.

It is the opinion of students of music that the services of the Tomlinsons will move toward enhance the musical portions of the religious services at the Temple. Tomlinson holds the degree of bachelor of music and master of sacred music, having attended the Philadelphia Conservatory of Music and Columbia University. He has studied piano, voice and organ with such nationally known teachers as N. Lindsay Norden, T. Tertius Noble, Olga Samaroff Stokowski, and Bernard Taylor of the Juilliard School of Music, and Ale McCurdy of Curtis Institute.

Tomlinson has directed and conducted some 25 to 30 choirs during the past fifteen years, and has held important posts in Philadelphia, Cincinnati, Chicago and Long Beach.

He is always ably assisted by his wife, Christine, who holds the degree of associate of arts, from Springfield Junior college, and who majored in piano and organ at Wisconsin University and Northwestern, where she was choir director and accompanist for the voice department.

Recent visitors to the High Holy Day services at Temple Isaiah compared the organ and choir singing here with the best of its kind in eastern and western temples.

The latest addition to the musical life of Palm Springs by the Tomlinsons is a music appreciation class offered by the Adult evening high school.

The Tomlinsons are founders and directors of the Civic Chorus of Palm Springs, and both teach piano, voice and organ in this vicinity.

Enduring Trials Sermon Subject

Continuing a series of sermons on Christian Living, Dr. James H. Blackstone, Jr., will preach Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock service on the subject "The Challenge to Endure Trials."

Sunday school commences at 9:30 a. m. with classes of instruction for all ages from cradle roll through adult Bible classes.

At 6 p. m. Junior high and Senior high Christian Endeavor societies meet. At 7:30 o'clock the newly remodeled chancel and the new organ will be dedicated. Frederick M. Barnes, widely known organist, will present an organ recital, the Chancel and Senior high choirs will join in the praise anthem, "The Omnipotence."

Following the service, there will be a reception.

"Man, made in His likeness, possesses and reflects God's dominion over all the earth. Man and woman as coexistent and eternal with God forever reflect, in glorified quality, the infinite Father-Mother God" (p. 516).

Special thanks services are planned for Thanksgiving Day at 10 a. m. The "Clothing for Korea" drive will be climaxed then, and packages prepared for shipment.

Hallowe'en Party

Cathedral City school held its annual Hallowe'en costume party last Friday afternoon with a costume parade in which all the grades participated. Promptly at 1:30 the parade started with the First grade class leading off. After marching around the grounds as an entire group the individual classes lined up in front of the three judges, Mmes. Leslie Kelly, M. H. Blakely and Paul Clark for the selection of the best costume for boys and girls. The following were awarded prizes: First grade, Bonnie Anderson as Little Miss Muffet, Michael Scott as a prisoner complete with ball and chain. Second and third grades, Vickie Palmer in an early American costume, and Mark Ring as Daniel Boone; Third and Fourth grade, Linda Sue Ketchersid as a Japanese maiden; Gilbert Flores as a baby monkey; Fourth and Fifth grades, Margaret Calderon as a Turkish miss and Billy Anderson resplendent in a Matador's costume; Fifth and Sixth grades, Sandra Schmidt as Bo Peep and Robert Flores as a chef. It was the consensus of the judges that in future years many more prizes should be awarded and the costumes be separated into special groups with prizes for each group, as the choices were very difficult owing to the varied and original outfits the children wore.

Following the parade the children retired to their individual classes where refreshments were served to relatives and friends.

Owing to the morning schedule of the Kindergarten class it was necessary for them to have their parade and party separate. Winners in this class were Bonita Guevara and Larry Scrivens. Refreshments were served to parents and friends in the classroom following the parade.

Postmaster Back

Postmaster Jack Hillery returned this week from a cross-country motor trip made to attend the National Postmasters convention in Boston, October 12 to 17. He reports that 2200 postmasters from all over the United States were in attendance. They were addressed by such notables as Senators Saltonstall and Lodge, House Leader McCormack, Secretary of Labor Tobin, Postmaster-General Donaldson and Ex-Postmaster-General Farley. Twenty-six California postmasters including four from Riverside county maintained a hospitality room at the Statler hotel at which they lobbied for the next convention which they secured for San Francisco in 1953. Cases of sample lemon juice donated by Sun-kist, sample bottles of Tio wine donated by the Tio Wine company and packages of Santa Cruz prunes were distributed. The Coca-Cola company entertained the postmasters with a group of 50 busses to transport them to Lexington Green for a chicken barbecue and to Concord and Northridge, Time, Inc., provided two trains for a trip to Plymouth Rock where a shore dinner with 100 waiters to serve was provided. Mr. Hillery made a side trip through New England to Quebec but cut his stay short on account of snow. He returned through Virginia and west through the Ozarks where they are undergoing a plague of forest fires. He also encountered snow in West Virginia.

C. of C. Meets

Regular meeting of Cathedral City Chamber of Commerce was held Monday evening at the Town Hall instead of the usual meeting date of first Tuesday of the month, because the Town Hall was in use for voting. The resignation of director Oscar Levier on account of ill health was accepted with regrets. A resolution of sympathy and thanks for his great amount of public spirited work was extended. Herbert Henry, proprietor of the City Service garage, was unanimously elected by the board to fill Levier's place as director. Routine matters covering the Fire Hall and advertising were disposed of. President Biles made a report on proposed Broadway lighting sponsored by the Chamber. As the Chamber does not have the necessary capital it was resolved that the Chamber believed it could pay for the electricity and maintenance provided that money for installation could be raised from other sources.

Lions Breakfast

The Lions Club Breakfast held at Sunair Park last Sunday was well attended according to President James Wolseth, and much work accomplished toward cleaning up the park grounds. Some brand new exceptionally colorful sound and color movies will be shown.

Villager Summoned

Bertram L. Bracken, who has resided in Cathedral City for the past several years in order to be near his old-time friend John Cousin of this city, passed away in a Los Angeles hospital November 1 after an illness of several months. Mr. Bracken was 72 and a native of Texas. He had been a motion picture director for many years with 20th Century-Fox and MGM. Interment was in Palm Springs cemetery, November 5, with Rev. Dr. Graham Hunter of Cathedral City Community church, conducting graveside services. Wife's and Son Mortuary was in charge.

Around the Town

L. J. Peterson, Mrs. Vernon Krings' father, is convalescing at home after spending last week in Desert hospital.

Mrs. Jean White of Los Angeles was a house guest of Miss Lydie Engh last week.

Dr. and Mrs. L. C. Meaker of Desert Cove ranch celebrated their 45th wedding anniversary last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin S. Yantis of 712 E street have returned from their Summer residence at Santa Cruz.

Mrs. Mabel Bryant has returned to her Broadway residence after summering in Riverside and Long Beach.

Thirty-six officers and trailers of Palm Springs Chapter 576, Order of the Eastern Star, were entertained Tuesday evening with a barbecue and television election returns by the Carroll Wallers. Mr. Waller is Worthy Patron of the chapter.

Dr. and Mrs. Claude Church were in town for a few days looking after their Cathedral City property and to vote. They expect to spend most of the Winter at Lido Isle. Dr. Church recently retired from active practice in Palm Desert.

In Appreciation

The voluntary contribution, time and labor by Cathedral City Girl Scouts under the leadership of Mrs. Mike Gordon in planting two of the six Broadway traffic islands to flowers as shrubbery as reported last week we believe deserves editor mention and commendation. Color and beauty are an asset everywhere, but particularly in a resort area where people come primarily for health, recreation and an escape from the sordidness of smoky streets. One other organization, the Woman's Club, has provided for one of the traffic islands. There are still three standing firmly and bare. When we see really enormous amount of sister, Palm Springs, is spending for their palm trees and the park at the east entrance. Palm Springs it is our humble opinion that Cathedral City organizations should get busy

The Man Who Lives in the Future

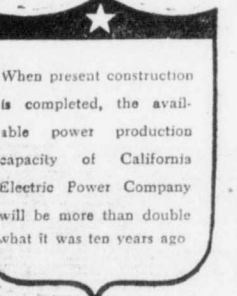

Like hundreds of other men you know, this man is deeply interested in his home, his family, his neighbors. He is a church member, a civic worker and a good all around citizen.

The thing that makes him different from his neighbors is the type of job he does. For during his working hours, he lives five years in the future. You see, he is a Planning Engineer for CalElectric.

It takes a long time to plan and build and equip power plants. Cal Electric plans at least five years ahead to meet growing needs. Plans must be designed, orders must be placed for giant generators, which take years to build, and hundreds of miles of transmission lines must be plotted and planned.

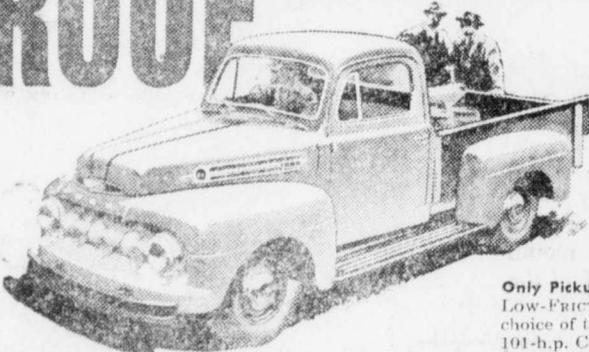

Our Planning Engineer and 1100 other employees doing their jobs conscientiously and well are an important part of the reason why CalElectric's customers receive such dependable electric service.

The Other Side of the City Hall

by CITY MANAGER RUSSELL RINK

An amazing and alarming condition exists in Palm Springs. The city has an official population of 7,760. Even the most conservative will admit that the unofficial population is greater than that. And yet it's impossible to find 112 people with enough interest in the defense of their country to devote 3 hours a week to a simple but vital task.

The Defense Department believes the threat of attack by Russian planes is real. So very real in fact that they have spent millions of dollars of the taxpayers' money to construct a radar fence around this nation of ours. If this had not been done your sleep would not be peaceful and you'd be demanding a searching investigation into the laxity of the Defense Department.

YOUR FEELING of security is false though, because the radar fence has holes in it. Radar works on a line-of-sight principle. It will not pick up a plane flying low behind a mountain. There are two ways to plug the holes in the radar fence. Thousands more radar units costing millions more dollars can be bought to cover all the valleys where enemy planes can sneak through. You can surely guess where the money to buy and man these additional radar stations will come from—right out of the complaining taxpayers' pockets.

The other way is to set up a network of ground observation posts staffed with volunteers who become unpaid members of the Air Force. All a person needs is normal eyesight and hearing, and a will to work for his country. There is no fanfare, no bands playing, no medals except a small pair of wings issued by the Air Force. But the job is as vital as the one performed by the minute men who lay on the cold New England ground quietly waiting for the enemy in 1776.

I WAS WRONG when I said there weren't 112 persons with enough interest to do the job. There are about 50 loyal citizens who attempt to man the Palm Springs post. Some of them stand two and three shifts a week in an effort to fill in the blank spots. In spite of the efforts of these few the post goes unmanned and the Santa Ana filter center receives no word from Palm Springs for hours on end. One tired observer said, "I hate to leave the post unmanned because I remember what happened at Pearl Harbor."

If the defense of your country is worth three hours a week to you, please contact Francis Crocker at the California Electric Power company office, 168 East Andreas road, telephone 2333. It's up to you.

Gem Society to See Nature Manufacture Gem Materials

An illustrated lecture on "The Formation of Gem Materials" will feature the November meeting of Shadow Mountain Gem and Mineral society at Palm Desert Community church at 8 p. m. tomorrow. George Merrill Roy, past president of the society and a member of the American Gem society will be the speaker.

Roy has recently completed the full curriculum of the Gemological Institute of America to qualify as a consulting gemologist to the jewelry trade.

IN DISCUSSING his topic Roy points out that "the formation of gems by mother nature is an absorbing chapter in the story of mineralogy and of great interest to laymen and professionals as well."

He said he will make use of several original diagrammatic slides to illustrate the origin of gem stone formations and states further that he "will also show a number of Kodachrome transparencies of some outstanding gem materials, many of them of spectacular beauty."

BECAUSE of the educational value of this lecture and the wide interest already evidenced the Palm Desert society is inviting the general public to attend this lecture. This is the second in a planned series of lectures on the fundamentals of geology and mineralogy to be held this season by the society.

How to Figure Proper Thread Weight for a Fabric
So simple when you know! Just pull a thread from the fabric-buy thread the same weight. Exception is wool, which should be sewn with silk thread.

Butter Pecan Angel Treat
(Makes 8 to 10 servings)
One 10-inch Angel Food Cake
1 quart Carnation Butter Pecan Ice Cream

Bake an angel food cake from your favorite recipe or a mix, or buy one at your bakery. Just before serving, heap the Butter Pecan Ice Cream in the center of the cake. Slice and serve it at the table. So easy-yet as pretty and delicious as many a dessert you spent hours preparing!

Know where the name "PECAN" came from?

In 1528, the Spanish explorer Cabeza de Vaca found Indians in the territory that is now Texas eating pecans to ward off starvation. They needed to be hungry to eat them, for the wild pecan of that day was bitter and the shell so thick and hard that the Indians named the nut "pagan", meaning "bone shell", a name the white man changed to pecan. Pecan trees today grow to immense size throughout our more southerly states and are an important crop. The nuts are delicious, and the shell is now called "paper shell"!

CLIP PAIRS OF SHOES together with spring clothespins. "Neatens" up the closet, and avoids that "one-shoe" crisis during the last-minute rush for school or office!

Do you have a "too thin" child? I worried about my daughter because she was so "picky"! So if you have the same problem, maybe you'd like my idea. I make her (and the little boy next door) a mid-morning and afternoon milk shake-using a cup of Carnation Half & Half and a scoop of Carnation Ice Cream for each child. A shaker is fine-but an ordinary mason jar works just as well!

Heavenly Waffles

President W. A. Foster of the Jaycee, in a letter to council, said that his organization was almost unanimous in favor of the municipal course.

William Bell, Jr., associated with his father in golf course architecture, was in the Village last week conferring with City Manager Russell Rink on plans for the proposed course.

Indians, Beaumont, Tangle on Local Grid Tomorrow

Palm Springs Indians will go into their seventh game of the season and fifth league contest still scoreless when they entertain the Beaumont Cougars here Friday night.

Beaumont has won one while losing three in conference play, their latest loss being to Coachella 20 to 6 last Friday.

The Cougars were rated one of the weakest teams in the league in pre-season predictions, but have continually shown improvement during the season.

COACH CLARE BALLAGH originally had this down as one of the few wins the Indians would score during the season, but now rates it as a close game due to his squad being plagued by injuries and the improvement shown by Beaumont.

Two more Indians suffered injuries in the Perris game Friday, Lester Busby sustaining a brain concussion when making a head-on tackle in the third quarter, and Chuck Martin suffering a knee injury in the final quarter.

BUSBY WAS TAKEN to the hospital for treatment, and was released Saturday. He is definitely expected to be out of action at least this week. Martin is on the doubtful list for Friday's game.

Expected to return to action Friday after having been out because of injuries are Rudy Martinez, who Ballagh hopes will take over the fullback duties; Dave Dellinger and Pete Siva. The Indians were further handicapped Friday by Halfback Alvin Harrison's having numerous boils on his legs.

BEAUMONT IS SLATED to rely on its passing attack Friday night, and the Indians will work on their pass defense which has proven effective in previous games.

The Perris game was rated a toss-up, but two punt returns and one pass interception, with Halfback Obell Morton going all the way to score on all three, turned the tilt into a 32 to 0 rout.

Morton's punt returns were for 78 and 66 yards in the third and fourth quarters respectively, and the pass interception covered 40 yards for another touchdown in the third.

PERRIS SCORED the first time it got the ball, with Fullback Joe Harris going over from the two to climax a 52-yard drive. This was the only score of first-half action, with the Indians stopping the only other Perris threat by holding for downs on the five.

Palm Springs drove down to the Panther 10 in the second quarter, but couldn't score. Pass interference on he part of the Perris team, which many spectators believed should have been called, and which was not called after much discussion by the officials, would have brought the Indians within the five.

LARRY PURNEL almost got away with a punt return in the third quarter, but stepped out of bounds on the 40. If he would have gotten by there, the entire team was ahead of him waiting to escort him to the goal line.

The final Perris score came in the closing minutes of the fourth quarter when Herman Gonzales passed to End Jan Berlin on the one, and he went over. The drive started on the Perris 21.

Beaumont Jayvee Grids to Meet Indians Tonight

Beaumont Jayvees will play here Thursday night in the final game of the season for Coaches Bill Manger and Dick White's squad with the Papooses preparing to rack this one up in the win column. Game time is 7 p. m.

The Papooses were edged last Thursday night by Banning, 13 to 12, but had the honor of scoring the first points counted by a Palm Springs team this year.

IN FACT, it looked like the Villagers would chalk up a win as they held a 12 to 0 lead going into the fourth quarter play. Banning scored in the first minutes of the last period by going across from the one, and then added the second touchdown five minutes later on a pass from the 20. Don Booven, four-year-veteran with the Branes, added the extra point.

Davey Martinez drove over from the two in the first quarter for the initial Palm Springs touchdown. A pass play from Tom Avila to Reuben Fontes covered 70 yards to the Banning 20, and then Billy Manger and Martinez alternated on carrying it to the two.

THE SECOND SCORE came in the third period on a pass from Avila to Vince Gonzales, which he caught in the clear and went over.

Both squads used their passing attacks effectively, both from the single wing and spread formations. Coaches Manger and White reported that this was the best game played this year by their team. Outstanding play was turned in by back Davey Martinez, who again only missed a few minutes of play; Linebacker Ronald Thompson, Tackle Bob Cordes and Ends Billy Manger and Vince Gonzales.

Annual Regatta at Salton Sea Starts Friday

Salton Sea Beach on the west shore of Salton Sea will be the headquarters for some of the nation's leading motorboat racing drivers tomorrow to Tuesday when the National Motor Boat Racing association holds its annual racing regatta on Coachella Valley's famed inland desert sea.

More than 200 boats are expected to compete in the nationally-known event, in which daring drivers will be aiming at cracking the 21 world's records set in last year's meet at Desert Beach on the other side of the sea.

Another world's record defender will be 60-year-old Eddie Meyer, called "the grand old man of racing," who holds the world's record of 99 miles per hour for 135C-inch hydroplanes.

PAUL SAWYER of Long Beach, California, will defend his "fastest mile" record of 121 m.p.h. set in a 16-foot, 266C-inch hydroplane.

In addition, there will be other record holders and scores of contenders. Salton Sea Beach is reached by Highway 99 and is located about 20 miles south of Indio.

City Hints Legal Action in Fight on Fly Nuisance

Something must be done about flies, city council decided last week after hearing complaints from citizens. New laws and heavy use of fertilizer were blamed.

Councilwoman Ruth Hardy, who with Ted McKinney are on a committee to study the situation, suggested that sawdust, instead of fertilizer, for use in lawns might be the answer and suggested that the city might stockpile sawdust for use by Villagers at lawn-planting time. McKinney said that the flies were not only a nuisance, but that they constituted a health menace.

Amblod over to Bob's Restaurant Tuesday for lunch and noticed a new sign "Left Ham Sandwich, 40¢... Right Ham Sandwich, 30¢."

"Why the sign, Bob?" I asked. "Don't tell me you believe hogs scratch more with their right leg than with their left—so's the left ham is more tender?"

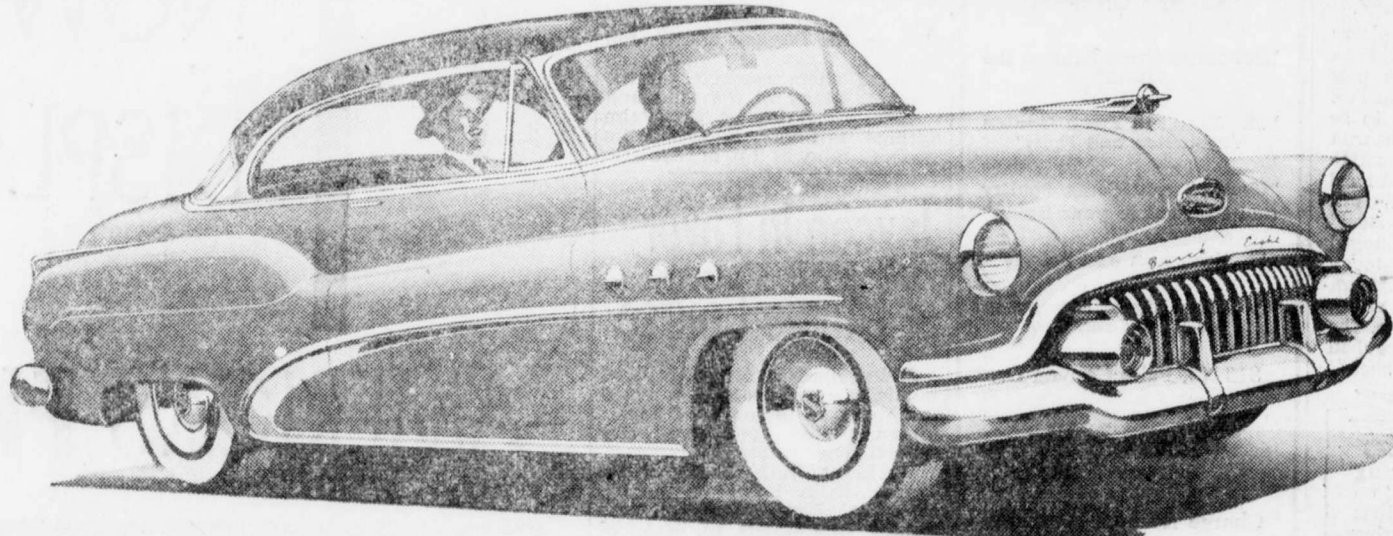

"No," he says. "I don't take any stock in it. But, some people have ordered those 'left' sandwiches. When I explain to them that there's nothing to that fable, that the sign is just a business-getter, and I've only one price, they enjoy a regular, old fashioned, plain ham sandwich all the more!"

From where I sit, stories like "right" hams being tougher than "left" ones are with us because some people get ideas into their head and hang onto them for dear life. It's like those who think an adult like myself hasn't the right to a glass of beer with my supper. I say let's keep our opinions free from being "sandwiched-in" by misinformation.

Like your travel with a JOYOUS THRILL?

WE HAVE NEWS for a lot of folks who want more fun from driving than they get from their present cars.

There's a trim bundle of eager high-powered energy that's just the ticket for you—a spirited automobile that can give you thrill after joyous thrill, for mile after fleeting mile.

Why not come in and try the Buick we have in mind?

The excitement starts with your first look at it, your first sitting in it, your first fingering of its slender wheel.

But wait till Dynaflo Drive* begins working its magic—and its constant and complete smoothness fills you with never-ending wonder.

Wait till you feel the bubbling exuberance of taking your first hill with a high-compression Fireball 8 Engine doing the honors. That's when you get a man-sized sampling of the tremendously able and instantly responsive power you command here.

Wait till you feel the serene satisfaction of skimming over rough roads, cobbles or ridged crossings. That's when you know, better than words can tell, what a million dollars' worth of ride-engineering can do in the way of magnificent comfort.

Wait till you jockey into a real tight parking space and note the fun and ease that Power Steering brings to a once-tough job.

But—why wait?

There's a Buick that can do all this—and more, far more—all ready for you to try it.

And listen: If you can afford a new car, you can afford a Buick.

How about coming in this week for a real sampling of this joyous travel?

Board Seeks New Grant from State

County supervisors Monday asked the state division of fairs and expositions for a grant of $75,000 to make an annex to the Commercial exhibits building on the county fairgrounds at Indio. The new building would be 80 feet by 180 feet.

Supervisors also asked for an additional grant of $9300, which will be used to make a small addition to the administrative offices on the fairgrounds and to make an existing building into a house for the superintendent of the grounds.

Supervisors made the request at the suggestion of R. M. C. Fullenwider, manager of the fair.

Each year they make a request for a substantial amount of money for improvements to the fairgrounds, and usually the state grants much of what they ask for.

The money comes from a state fund set up for the improvements of fairs and expositions. The state fund comes from taxes on horse racing.

Palm Desert Sunbeams

By EDITH EDDY WARD

Another year is starting in the history of Palm Desert—the seventh—and, as we look back over the past six years, the progress is almost unbelievable! Last year at this time we were wondering what the new season would bring and now we know. It brought many interesting new people—first as visitors, then as residents of this fast-growing desert community. Some came just for a weekend and returned for several weekend visits. Others came for a Winter vacation from the East and Middle West and before their vacation was over decided to settle in Palm Desert. Last year brought many beautiful new homes such as the Tom Browns, E. W. Stewart, Clarence Bullock and Jascha Veissi, all large expensive homes which justifies the faith of successful business men in the future of Palm Desert.

Now comes the new season with the formal opening of the famous Shadow Mountain club this Saturday, November 8 which recalls the first Grand Formal Opening just five short years ago. It was a never-to-be forgotten event and, since then, the fame of Shadow Mountain club at Palm Desert, California, has spread all over the world! The grand opening lasted for four days and four nights and without question, was one of the most brilliant social events of the season in the West.

It drew the largest roster of blue-book socialites, business leaders top ranking members of the armed forces, film and radio celebrities, publishers, editors, writers and photographers of any event in the southland in many years. It marked another spectacular victory for Clifford W. Henderson, and the men and women who worked practically day and night to help make the Shadow Mountain club and Palm Desert a success.

Hedda Hopper and Edgar Bergen came to assist with the cutting of the ribbon and Jimmie McHugh, famous song writer, composed the Shadow Mountain song which was played for the first time by the Todds. During the daytime, club members and guests watched Vikki Draves, winner of two Olympic diving championships and members of the L. A. Athletic club swimming teams put on water shows with Harold "Dutch" Smith as master of ceremonies. Monty Montana's troupe of trick riding stars put on their show in true western style with Roy Nafziger, sponsor, riding his silver-saddled mount.

By night hundreds of famous people dined sumptuously in the magnificently appointed dining room while outdoors Cliff Henderson put on a spectacle of fireworks of huzzling gold in the night sky; and Janet Dee's water ballet troupe performed on white surfboards, floating atop the 135-foot swimming pool which was lighted like a huge aquamarine jewel.

Each season since then has witnessed added improvements, more comforts and conveniences. One of the major added attractions was the snack bar poolside which instantly became popular. Then the Manzanita Room was added. And this year there is the enclosed foyer and other improved facilities. Each year new records are established, new precedents added to the growing traditions of the Shadow Mountain club, new social activities added to previous successful ones. And each year the club becomes more and more a complete family club. This season the family idea will achieve new prestige with the addition of nursery and training facilities for tots.

SHADOW MOUNTAIN ECHOES: The Ed Reicherts from Oshkosh, Wisconsin, are now permanent residents and are busy getting settled in their new home just a half block from the club. Mae Olson and Flo Coffin spent one night at the Palm Desert Adobe on their way back to Minneapolis. They'll both be back in January with their husbands to spend three months in Palm Desert. The C. I. Smiths are guests of the Tom Browns this week and June Crocker came down last weekend to open their home for the season. Bob Crocker, who has been ill for several weeks, is about the same, but all he can talk about is getting back to the desert.

At the Cahuilla school (pictured above) the children paraded in costume around the school and then were presented with candy by the witch, Robert Mueller. City Maintains Fine Hallowe'en Safety Record Palm Springs continued its record of no vandalism for the eighth consecutive year due to the Lions club sponsored Hallowe'en parties at the Village theater for girls and the high school gymnasium for boys, Police Chief August G. Kettmann, general chairman of the event, reported. Approximately 400 girls and small boys attended the party at the theater, and more than 150 boys participated in the athletics programs at the athletic field and gymnasium, Chief Kettmann said.

Free popcorn, candy, doughnuts, apples and soft drinks were given to the children. Earlier in the day, all elementary schools in the Palm Springs Unified School district held Hallowe'en parties with parents and friends as guests.

All children dressed in costume, and were given free candy and other refreshments at the close of the program.

On the Trails

With the long waited for cooling days—the weekend brought activity again to our trails.

The Los Compadres started the season with a breakfast ride up into the beautifully improved Andreas Canyon site, where tables are set beside the stream, and abundantly heaped with chuckwagon breakfast.

As we rode into the clearing near the metate studded slab rock—we were greeted by Hutch Mosely who had the chuckwagon well fired up and already giving off that ever wonderful aroma of western coffee-in-the-open.

The Agua Caliente Tribal Council can certainly be commended for the splendid work in establishing these beautiful picnic grounds.

The setting gives the visitor still an additional desert-wonderland memory-picture which can not easily be erased from mind.

Even at this, the driest season, the stream widens into a sparkling pool, where the well built tables and sturdy benches are placed beneath the ever-so-green canyon trees.

Among the new Los Compadres members present, Lorraine Hill, Frenchy Small and Bud and Helen Hinneman were enjoying new friendships.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Wilson of Riverside and Harry Wilson of Long Beach, all guests of Billy Mosely. See you on the trails.

Noted Artist to Work in Desert Area

Michael van de Cuyper, painter, decorator and designer, has arrived on the desert (directly from Central America and indirectly from New York) to work with the nationally known ceramist, Leland Claes, who bakes his superb kilnware at Morongo Valley just off the main highway.

Van de Cuyper was born in Holland and practically tried his first steps in life in ancestral studios where painting, sculpture, mosaics and stained glass enticed the babe's inspection. Soon he worked with his father and grandfather, both internationally famous as chairman of the permanent board of the International Congress of Architects in Paris. He himself studied at Amsterdam, Vienna, Paris and London. His lectures at colleges and institutes on modern esthetics and experience in industrial design (when arriving in this country years ago) led to appointment to the advisory committee of the Museum of Modern Art at New York where he served for about 10 years.

People anxious to expand interest in paint and clay in an exciting way, whether to express high aptitudes or indulge in recreational hobbies have begun to gather at Leland Claes place (himself of Scandinavian extraction as the ultimate decorative finish of his glazes show, and resulting from his studies in art at L.A.C. Art Institute) to form groups for the season. Rocky canyons and Joshua trees, mountains and skies will inspire to serious and worthwhile painting and modelling as a pastime, for which our region is unsurpassed. Lectures to larger audiences may follow also on the timely topic of Human Relations in Art and Industry," said van de Cuyper.

Many Vacationists at Racquet Club

Among vacationers at the Racquet club are Mona Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hamilton of Santa Monica, noted ceramist, manufacturer, Scotty Rubin of Chicago and Sam Sontag who have opened their homes for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Small, who have also opened their home, dined at the club Sunday.

Charter Day Observed by Woman's Club Here Monday

By RUTH MARTIN

A large attendance of representative women arrived at the Palm Springs Woman's club on Monday, November 3, to participate in the ceremonial of "Charter Day Observance" held in honor of the Charter Members and early leaders whose vision, ideals and generous efforts made possible the existence of this powerful organization.

The president of the club, Mrs. S. P. Manassee, beautifully costumed, after introducing past presidents and charter members, made an impressive and inspirational address stressing the importance of peace, harmony, friendliness, and continued effort toward those objectives to which the club is dedicated.

Mrs. John Robertson Macartney, in a pleasing narrative—"Let We Forget"—related the history of the club since its inception while Mrs. Austin G. McManus reminisced concerning the events which prompted her generous gift of the land on which the Palm Springs Woman's club is built.

At the close of the business meeting Mrs. Randall Henderson, program chairman, graciously introduced the artists for the day, known as the Aeolian Strings—a trio of accomplished young women composed of Miss Virginia Baker, violin; Miss Alberta Hurst, cellist, and Miss Mona Emanuel, harp, all of whom performed with exceptional skill and talent and have each concertized throughout the country and appeared as soloists in various well known symphony orchestras. Their diversified program given in concert and at the tea hour was rendered with brilliance and in a masterly style which was enthusiastically acclaimed.

The especially attractive tea was given in honor of the charter members with Mrs. Manassee, president, and the executive board acting as tea hostesses for the day as is the custom of the club. Of unusual interest were the decorations created by Mrs. Gordon Clark who arranged a composition of seashells and succulents in an unusual flat woven basket for the tea table with an arrangement for the president's desk in the same motif. A large basket of pink flowers enhanced the beauty of the stage and lovely costumes of the entertainers.

To Mrs. Daniel McCauley, Mrs. Claude B. Freeman and the members of that committee, much glory and credit is due for their successful efforts in creating a warm and friendly atmosphere and for the original and decorative badges presented at the door.

Joel Stone of Denver, who arrived Friday with her daughter, Sally. Mrs. Stone is the owner of Place in the Sun.

Mack Kufferman Guest of Honor at Dinner Party

Entertained as guest of honor at a gay dinner-dance at the Racquet club Saturday night was Villager Mack Kufferman who celebrated his birthday.

Among celebrants were Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Mel Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Flax, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Berger, and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Badt of Los Angeles, daughter and son-in-law of the Kuffermans.

Balboa Couple Entertains Here

Mrs. Frank Champagne of Hermosa Beach, a former resident of Palm Springs, was entertained last week by Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Smith of Balboa Island at the Town and Desert. During their stay in Palm Springs, Mr. and Mrs. Smith entertained Mrs. Billy Wright at cocktails and visited the lovely new home of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Crockett.

After Theater Party Honors 'Hot Air' Cast

An after theater party was given by the Richard M. Marshes at their Palm Desert home Saturday for the cast of the Palm Desert Little Theater production "Hot Air" which ended its successful seven-day run that night.

Specially honored were Betty Mears, the play's author; Emily Heath, radio and TV starlet; E. R. Hall, a director at Republic studios, and A. B. Holmes of NBC, all of Hollywood, and Clay Stearns, producer-director of the Little Theater, with his wife, Mary.

A white cake decorated with realistic red candy roses and the words "Congratulations Hot Air" centered a buffet presided over by the hostess and her mother, Mrs. John Croft, of Rancho Mirage assisted by Mrs. Hal Carpenter of Palm Desert.

Among the sixty or more guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Leland Quick, Mrs. Dorothy Thomson and Dr. Minnie Burdon, Palm Desert; Messrs. and Mmes. Wade Ellis and Mac Bride of Indio. Also Mr. and Mrs. Ross Mathews of Rosemeade.

Spectrum Club Display Shown at Art Center

Currently on display are 21 pictures by professional and amateur artists.

Among them are two desert scenes by Bill Bender, young landscape painter of Los Angeles and protege of James Swinnerton, which have attracted wide attention.

Members of the board of trustees of the Art Center will assemble today at 3 p. m. at the home of the president, George Wheeler, for a business session.

Cobina Wright and Guests in Village

Lunching at the Racquet club with Cobina Wright last week were Mrs. George Cameron (who recently returned from Honolulu) and Wally Seawell, noted photographer.

Also enjoying a pool-side luncheon at the club recently was Sheila Graham, columnist for Daily Variety, accompanied by her two children and Mary James.

Eastern Star to Ballot on New Officials

Josephine McCauley, worthy matron of the Palm Springs Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, will preside during an annual election of officers meeting tonight at the Masonic Temple on Ramon road.

Dedication rites for the charter of the local chapter will be conducted during the evening. The charter was presented to original officers of the Chapter by the Grand Chapter recently in San Francisco.

Officers who served at the time of the Chapter's institution were Florence Murphy, D. B. Carlin, Josephine McCauley and Carroll Waller.

I RISE TO REMARK

By CONGRESSMAN JOHN PHILLIPS

Well, did we pass the examination?

When I came back to California and began to travel around, not only in the District, but in the rural counties from San Diego to Sacramento and San Francisco, I was asked three questions at almost every meeting. I was always asked if I thought this was the most abusive campaign we have had.

My answer was no. This campaign, muddy as it is, on one side at least, can't hold a candle to the campaigns of the 80's, or earlier. We haven't had a rough campaign since 1932. A generation has grown up with no knowledge of a campaign fight. Having taken a severe beating in 1932, as a result of the depression and the Michaelson smear campaign, the Republican Party threw in the towel in 1936; backed an ex-Democrat in 1940 only to discover he had never fully discarded his affection for the new deal, and then followed a little man in 1948 who was so busy getting settled in Washington that he neglected to campaign.

PRIOR TO TWENTY YEARS ago, the campaigns, rough as they were, were localized. If a Louisiana paper referred to Lincoln as a "big baboon," only the readers knew it, until long afterwards, and personalities were delivered by orators on local soap boxes. Today the charges, whether from the tailboard of a train, or a radio or TV studio, are heard in every nook and corner of the nation in a matter of seconds. We have never had this situation before. We must find a solution for it, and I suggest the solution of simple honesty and truth, encouraged by a moral strength which opposes dishonesty, in the rural areas of America. It is a new problem to meet.

The next question asked me was whether I thought a Third Party would spring up after the election. I do not think so. Third parties are not successful in the United States. The founders of the Republic contemplated a two-party system. We must fight now to preserve it.

A THIRD QUESTION followed:

Did I think there would be a realignment of the present major parties? My considered answer was that I think we have already had it! For ten years I have seen a coalition of Democrats, mostly from the rural South, and of Republicans, almost entirely from the rural areas of the North and West, vote together to keep the Republic from coming apart at the seams. They have voted against a further devaluation of the dollar; together they have written all farm legislation; united they have defeated or overridden attempts to impose socialism on the United States.

We have not yet realized it, but we have today on one side, a "Constitutional-Republican Party" and on the other side, following the European designation, a "Socialistic-Labor Party." The names indicate the philosophies. The old Democratic Party, once proud of its traditions and its honor, has been taken over by the big city bosses, whose finances come from the lowest elements of our economy; the social thinkers and subversives who would substitute a soviet-America for the Republic; and a group of office holders who fill the stratum between Civil Service career men and women, and the elected officials at the top. This is a selfish, self-perpetuating combination, whose interest is not in the future of the nation, but in the spoils and the patronage which go with victory, however shabbily won.

THE ELECTION on November 4 therefore is a final examination, rather than an election in the ordinary sense. It is a test to see if we, the people, understand the kind of government set up for us in 1789, and which, by its unique characteristics, made us a strong nation of free people.

This letter, as you know, must be written about a week before you read it in your paper. That is why I ask, did we pass the examination?

Halt Journey

Officer James Clarkson took into custody a "Mexican" at 12:23 a. m. Tuesday. He was released to the border patrol.

Desert Court Sessions Now Under Way

Judge O'Donnell
Presides at Court at Indio

With the second sessions of the Riverside superior court under way in Indio as of Monday morning comes the promise of continued request for establishment of a fourth superior court in the desert area.

County supervisors, the county grand jury, and the County Bar association recently agreed that the state legislature should establish a fourth permanent judge.

They also agreed that the new judge should give most of his time to the rapidly growing Coachella Valley, which is 75 miles away from the county seat, Riverside, where the existing three judges function.

Judge T. P. O'Donnell is presiding at the sessions now under way in the County building, Oasis street and Highway 111. He replaces Judge Clarence Kincaid of Los Angeles who held forth in the desert court last year.

Judge O'Donnell will continue to conduct pre-trial hearings which were initiated by Judge Kincaid last year. They were the first such hearings held in the state.

Judge O'Donnell received his law degree from the University of Santa Clara in 1933. In 1950, after practicing law in Hollister, he was appointed a superior court judge in San Benito county. He served in the Army in World War II.

Other members of the court are F. G. Brinkley, clerk; Leslie Finley, court reporter, and Arthur Shepard, bailiff.

Everyone in the Palm Springs area reads The Sun.

Owen Coffman Post Starts Action on Operation Church

Active participation, in the church of his choice, now being an established part of the individual Legionnaire's program as urged by National Convention resolution, Owen Coffman Post has a committee at work on "Operation Church."

Meeting Monday night in the Legion clubhouse were Post Chaplain Gerald Mitchell, Jack Freeman, John Connell, Warren Slaughter, and Post Adjutant Clinton Mitchell, to consider plans and ideas of making the national action effective at the Post and member level. Also on the committee is Dr. Dan McCauley. Cooperation in the national plan of the week of February 3 as a "go to Church Sunday" was approved.

This is in honor of the four chaplains, Protestant, Jewish, and Catholic, who, on the torpedoed and sinking transport "Dorchester," gave their lives to their death with interlocked arms. The committee hopes to secure the assistance of local churches in making this day of recognition of universality of God and brotherhood of man, and of the necessity of religion in daily living, as an offset to communism. Selection of the Sunday, February 1 or 8, is to be decided by the local ministry.

Assets of State Savings-Loan Groups 2 Billion

California savings and loan associations have just passed the $2,000,000,000 mark in assets, President William H. Smith of Coachella Valley Savings and Loan was informed this week by Neil Davis of Los Angeles, executive vice president of the California Savings and Loan League.

Resources of the state's 188 thrift and home-financing institutions now stand at $2,047,611,827, Davis said, which means that California is the second in the nation to pass this mark, Ohio having been first. The reserves of California's savings association have kept pace with growth and substantially exceed the national average, he continued.

Since the end of World War II, these associations have added $1,405,117,775 to their resources, which means that, in less than seven years, they have registered a 219 per cent gain. In doing so, this state has passed by Illinois and New York to assume its present high position, Davis said.

"The passage of this new milestone marks a great occasion for our business and its statewide trade association," Davis commented. "Not only has our growth in California been outstanding, but it has been based on sound and conservative management of the public's savings in our associations. Continued growth of our institutions seems assured, especially in view of the public's confidence in our operation," he concluded.

Meanwhile, the dedication of increased personal acceptance of the need of religion will be brought before the Legion members in various ways by the committee, he added.

Finchy School Children Hold Hallowe'en Party

One hundred fifty children marched in a Hallowe'en parade at Katherine Finchy school Friday, all in appropriate costumes. The Hallowe'en celebration was in the patio of the school and the parade under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher group and its president, Mrs. Saul Ruskin who greeted the guests and presented prizes to the winners.

The contest was judged by Paul Summit, child guidance director for the Unified School district, Mrs. A. N. Cowan, a visitor with one child from each class acting as assistant judge.

Prizes were awarded Nancy Gardner, most colorful costume; Wendy and Denny Hammond, most beautiful; Philip Stalder and Frank Ripley, most unusual; Erick Williams, most original; and Knute Skjoberg, the scariest.

Mexican Dinner Great Success

Katherine Finchy school Parent-Teacher group, Mrs. Saul Ruskin, president, sponsored a highly successful Mexican dinner Thursday night with approximately 350 guests served. Net profit of approximately $400 will go to enlarge the school library and for other school needs.

Warren Linville, president, was in charge of arrangements. Trixie Jarrett and her pupils presented several pleasing dance numbers. Leo Rojo and his trio, and the Guadalupe boys from the Doll House also entertained. Linville issued his thanks to the following firms for aiding: Village Market, El Paseo Market, Safeway, Mayfair, Desert Provision company and Pappys.

Ballot Final Test for Citizenship Kiwanians Told

"The election today is a final examination which will see if the citizens understand the kind of government we're supposed to have under the Constitution," Congressman John Phillips told Kiwanians at their luncheon meeting Tuesday at the Tennis Club.

Pointing out that the Constitution specifically gave power to the States and individuals, he deplored the centralized power which has been taken over by the Federal government while the Democrats have been in power.

"The Federal government has never yet done anything as cheaply and effectively as it can be done locally," Congressman Phillips said.

He cited seven objectives of socialism, all of which have been appearing in the Federal government in the past few years, the congressman added.

At the business meeting, Father William Blondon was appointed to the board of directors for the remainder of this year to succeed the Rev. Michael O'Connor, who resigned recently.

The club has agreed to sponsor a Boy Scout troop, and named to the supervisory committee were Clare Kelly, Bill Anderson and Ed Kenyon.

Youthful Vandalism Reported to Police

Vandalism believed caused by school children was reported Tuesday to police by Mrs. Edith Morrey, 585 Paseo de Anza. She said that paint had been spread over the patio and the fence in the back yard in the hours after school Monday.

Cliff Henderson's Home to be Showplace of Desert

Clifford W. Henderson, founder-president of Palm Desert corporation, home of picturesque Shadow Mountain club, has started construction on his new home in Palm Desert which promises to be the showplace of the entire American Desert.

Henderson's plans call for three small lakes, a waterfall, swimming pool in three sections, and the very latest in modern desert design for the house which will approximate five thousand square feet.

The present Henderson residence is being cleverly absorbed in the new structure for which he has purchased a tremendous piece of ground adjoining his present property. In addition to supervising the "showplace," Cliff Henderson is busy as a beaver making arrangements for the formal opening of Shadow Mountain club on November 8. This fifth formal opening promises to be the biggest and gayest yet. Plans call for unusual entertainment and many fun surprises.
